REVERDY C. RANSOM, PRESIDING BISHOP

WILBERFORCE, OHIO

September 14, 1934.

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Forbes,
18 Wellington Street,
Boston, Mass.

My dear Mrs. Forbes;

Your letter came just as I was on the eve of leaving to hold my annual conferences, and at a time when I am too busy to look up the matter you request. I suppose I have available the volumes of the A. M. E. Review you desire. I cannot look them up until I return, which will be in about four weeks. I shall keep your letter before me and give the matter my earliest attention.

Through the years, I have mourned the passing of my beloved comrade, Mr. Forbes. He did some splendid work in the columns of the Review, and a lot of it has permanent value. You have my cooperation in preparing it.

Reverdy, III, is entering the School of Religion, Chicago University, this fall, where he will major in Religious Education. He already feels himself to be quite a man.

Mrs. Ransom joins me in love. I am, as always,

Your good friend,

Reverdy C. Ransom
